1. General principles

These Regulations are to define the International Handball Federation's criteria for handballs which have to be met for the ball concerned to be provided with the IHF seal of approval.

2. Technical criteria for balls

2.1. According to Rule 3 of the Rules of the Game, the following technical requirements apply:

2.1.1. The balls shall consist of a leather or plastic casing. They must be round. The outer material must not be shiny or smooth.

2.1.2. The following ball sizes, i.e. circumference and weight, shall be used for the different age categories:

- 58 - 60cm in circumference and 425 – 475g in weight (IHF Size 3) for men and for male youth (aged 16 and over)
- 54 - 56cm in circumference and 325 – 375g in weight (IHF Size 2) for women, female youth (aged 14 and over) and male youth (aged 12 to 16)
- 50 - 52cm in circumference and 290 – 330g in weight (IHF Size 1) for female youth (aged 8 to 14) and male youth (aged 8 to 12)
- The balls for children (aged 8 and under) may be of different circumference and weight at national level (IHF Size 0).

2.2. Characteristics of the balls

During use the balls must retain their weight, shape and bouncing capacity.

3. Special characteristics of leather balls

- 3.1. Leather balls must be made of high quality full-grained chrome leather. After tanning, the leather must:
- have a high tensile and breaking strength (approximately 95kg/cm²)
 - be soft and supple to the touch
 - have fault-free and resistant grains and seams which exclude all risk of injury and do not fray or split.
- 3.2. The leather ball shall consist of at least 32 panels.
- 3.3. Fully synthetic sewing threads shall be used.
- 3.4. The bladders are made of latex or a similar, equivalent material with a stretching capacity of at least 600%.
- 3.5. The valve system of the bladder must be simple and effective to use.

4. Special characteristics of plastic balls

Ball casings or bladders made of plastic must be a fully equivalent substitute for a leather casing or rubber bladder in every respect.

5. IHF seal of approval

- 5.1. Awarding the IHF seal of approval
- 5.1.1. The IHF seal of approval may be awarded upon application to any ball manufacturer if the manufacturer fulfils the technical and financial requirements.
- 5.1.2. The application shall be made in writing, with the necessary technical documentation, in English, French or German to the IHF Head Office.

- 5.1.3. To allow the technical requirements to be checked, at least five balls of each type of ball shall be sent, free of charge, to the IHF together with the application.
- 5.1.4. A testing fee shall be charged for the inspection.
- 5.1.5. The IHF reserves the right to withdraw the seal of approval for balls if technical defects identified on subsequent retesting are not eliminated or if financial commitments made are not fulfilled.
- 5.1.6. The place of jurisdiction is Basle/Switzerland.

5.2. Identification of IHF approved balls

IHF approved balls must be clearly printed, in colour, with the official IHF logo (3.5cm high) and the designation 'IHF Approved Ball':

IHF Approved Ball

IHF
Approved
Ball

5.3. Use of IHF approved balls

- 5.3.1. Only balls with the IHF seal of approval may be used at official IHF competitions.
- 5.3.2. A list of ball manufacturers with the IHF seal of approval is kept by the IHF Head Office and is available free of charge.

6. Licence fee

- 6.1. On payment of the licence fee, the manufacturer gains the right to affix the IHF seal of approval to balls of the tested and approved type. The licence takes the form of a contract drawn up by the IHF Head Office.
- 6.2. The licence fee shall be paid annually in Swiss francs and, on conclusion of the contract, it shall be paid immediately for the current contractual year. For all subsequent years, it shall be paid by one month prior to the expiration of the contractual year.
- 6.3. The contract shall be extended by tacit agreement if the contracting parties do not exercise their right of termination.
- 6.4. If one of the contracting parties is no longer interested in awarding or using the IHF seal of approval, it shall notify the other party by registered post, at least three months prior to the expiration of the contractual year. If notice of the termination is not received in good time, the contract shall be valid for a further year.
